

Celestial Wanderer

Two worlds away from nowhere.

Into the deeper mists they must sink

Try to see through the fog of the passing years

On a journey to the brink

Celestial wanderer

Can you find your way to home

Can you return to the place you were

Or will you travel off all alone.

ROBK

Too far away for vision

On a planetoid soft and green.

Oh you wonder ~~are~~ of planet you left years ago

The passing thoughts crop up in a dream

Ancient scientist

Your memory's buried inside your ~~roots~~ ^{head}

And on the place that you came from long

Your either missing or thought dead
