

The Celebrity

Written by G. Pichler

Verse (first verse)

Life ain't been easy since I met the celebrity
All those questions 'bout me and the celebrity
Never stand in the weight of publicity
Life ain't been easy since I met the celebrity

Chorus (first chorus)

They're playing games in my head (just to taught me)
Twisting every word that I said (to confuse me)
It's making me a physical wreck

Verse (second verse)

Out in a hide-away shack with the celebrity
They said we'll never come back to reality
It won't be long 'til she's back in the Hollywood scene
Life ain't been easy since I met the celebrity

Chorus (second chorus)

No matter how bad it gets (it's not behind me)
Twisting every word that I said (to confuse me)
Can't even make it in bed with the celebrity

Bridge

On the silver screen she seems like a beauty queen
But when push comes to shove, she only seventeen

Verse (third verse)

It's been two years now since I met the celebrity

I think it's time to get split with the celebrity

She says it detracts from her potentiality

Life ain't been easy since I met the celebrity

Chorus (third chorus)

She's playing games in my head (just to taught me)

Twisting every word that I've said (to confuse me)

It's making me a physical wreck
